Reader's Opinions

As the title implies, "To See the Light" traces the journey of two girls as they search for light in their present circumstances, their spiritual walks, and the trouble they have fallen into. I appreciated that it made clear that bad things happen because of men's choice. Also, after I read the story and pondered Dawn's continual focus...

My reaction after finishing this book: WOW! I got this book because it was written by a young Christian author and so I decided to give it a try. Wow, was I not expecting such a profound story. It was incredibly deep and just awe-inspiring by which I mean the storyline and the things the characters go through. The writing was more amateur,...
