Reader's Opinions

If you love Patricia Cornwell or Jefferson Bass but they just don't write fast enough to keep up with your reading, try Shirley Kennett. There is quite a bit of gore but it...

This is designed around a version of the buddy cop formula with an outsider (in this case a psychologist who specializes in virtual reality) paired with a veteran cop. It was sort of interesting, but the dated computer technology doesn't really matter all that much to the plot.
