Reader's Opinions

A Galactic Holiday is a three-novella anthology edited by Angela James and with novellas by Stacy Gail, Sasha Summers and Anna Hackett. The stories are all science fiction romances (or romance science fiction, more accurately) with a Christmassy theme. A copy of this book was provided to me by the publisher, Carina Press, for review...

I had started this anthology a while back, and read the first story. Then I got distracted and forgot. I picked it up today as I was in the mood for short stories/novellas and had Anna Hackett's on my to-read list. So, I read the second story first--Galileo Holiday. It was my first by this author and I really enjoyed it. Riley is an...
