

THE DARCY'S OF DERBYSHIRE: A PRIDE & PREJUDICE VARIATION

What are Men to Rocks and Mountains? Elizabeth Bennet longs to see the view from the famous Black Rocks in Derbyshire, but her aunt and uncle refuse to allow her to climb to the highest rock outcroppings alone. Elizabeth's distress is only worsened by a chance encounter with Mr. Darcy -- at least until he offers to escort her to the top. But unbeknownst to her,...

Peek Inside the Book

When a gentleman spends quite some time telling me in detail about his father's courtship of his mother, I have to assume there is some moral for me in the tale. Since in this case that courtship consisted primarily of his father insisting repeatedly they were to marry and his mother refusing...

Reader's Opinions

I greatly enjoyed my second story by Abigail Reynolds although only a novella it was a very sweet little book with a great story! Hearing the account of Darcys parents courtship gave great background and a new dimension to Darcys character and a real insight into his childhood which was fascinating. I thought it was very clever how...
