

SILENTLY INSIDE

I can taste the arsenic on my lips. It's not as bitter as tears. The screams awaken me from delusion. Hollow tendrils of fear and contempt beckon closer on frail wings sewn together by veins and dignity. I hear them scream at night when no one else is listening; when no one else is...

Reader's Opinions

I'm really not sure how I found this, but the description screamed at me to read it for a forensics (speech/drama) cutting that I had to share with some people. The book is a very short and rather dark read, but it was deliciously written. I'm not one to...

I came across Silently Inside in a Goodreads giveaway. When my copy arrived, I dove right in since it is a very brief book. I'm not sure how to go about classifying it - at times it...
