Reader's Opinions

The more Davenport I read the more I see the light of Eros in his words. What I had originally taken to be a shadowless quality to his writing is looking more and more like a focused light with its own inherent shadows, for while Eros is all about light and flow and burgeoning, like all gods it is also unfathomable and beyond our ultimate...

This has been edited out of the gospels as we have them, by some high-minded copyist who did not notice that an animal whose whole soul is composed of loyalty and whose faith in his master cannot be shaken by any force, neither by death nor by distance, is given a voice, like Balaam's ass...
