

BALANCING ACT

Twelve-year-old Noelle Onesti has gymnastics in her blood. Not only does she have natural ability, talent and drive, but back in Romania, her mother was also an Elite gymnast. So if there's one girl destined to come home with a gold medal at the Junior National Championships, it's Noelle. But Noelle's a worrier, and she knows it won't be...

Reader's Opinions

My only slight disappointment was that junior nationals was built up so much through the book, and then it was covered in only a few pages. Otherwise loved it! Great expression of team work and character building!
