Reader's Opinions

Great book! If you're a northerner, or a cottage dweller - a must read. Allin's love the northern scape is clear - and her writing shows it. Read!!

I really enjoyed this book. I think that Allin has found her groove on this one; she certainly smoothed out some of the bumps from the first of this series (and the first of a new series almost inevitably has bumps). I also thought that the ending was well done for this story.
