Peek Inside the Book

Come now, don't make such a funeral face. It isn't dying that's sad; it's living when you're not happy.
Octave Mirbeau, Le Jardin des supplices //

Woman possesses the cosmic force of an element, an invincible force of destruction, like nature's. She is, in herself alone, all nature! Being the matrix of life, she is by that very fact the matrix of death -...

Reader's Opinions

This is the single-most disturbing book I have read to date and still find fascinating. It's about a young Frenchman attempting to find himself (via economic success) in colonial China and the frightening English femme fatale he meets. Read it!
