Reader's Opinions

I can describe these novels as novels of portraits. Although some characters are illustrated in grotesque way, they are quite real when you look around yourself. Recommended book.

I have read only fifty pages of Gogol in Russian, enough to know how hilarious he is, and to regret his conversion and attempt to destroy this great book. "Sobakavich" alone rewards the reader with the Russian patronymic, "Son of" applied to "Sobaka," a bitch. Yet Sobakavich is the most genial of men, who refuses...
