Reader's Opinions

Guy Davenport is one of my favorite writers, though I don't know why. Typically my favorite writers are those with whom I have a shared sensibility, so that by reading them I am reading myself, or rather my future or potential self. Davenport is different. Our sensibilities are at odds, and he is a pedant while I am not. Perhaps what...

This is the way most art writing should be done, I think. Since good artwork itself can never be explained, the best way to approach it is epigrammatically, associatively, with tangential...
