Reader's Opinions

Pretty much the same opinion as when I read Volume 1, although this volume had the book, "And Call Me Conrad", as originally serialized, which was interesting and gave me the chance to get more of an sense of the characters, as opposed to his short stories. Nice for a novice like me, but maybe not so interesting for fans who have read...

Awesome, amazing. If you know me, you wouldn't expect me to say much else about anything Zelazny (although I still have not read Lord Demon, and I'm not sure about other collaborations, either). I'm going to try to be level-headed while I write about this book, but it's going to get...
