Reader's Opinions

Stumbled across in a second-hand bookstore, begun and finished that same day. Utterly enchanting. I could not help being reminded of Laurie Lee's "Cider with Rosie" - another memoir of childhood by a man who has an incredible knack for writing events from his past clearly enough for an adult to understand, and yet still coming from...

Dirk Bogarde quite rightly sub-titles the book (on the cover) An Evocation. He remembers a time some 50 years earlier when he was a young boy on the Sussex Downs and the writing is exactly like that of a junior and captures the innocence of...
