Peek Inside the Book

Bear in mind, he once wrote a correspondent, that all Histories from the Rock of Plymouth, and Jamestown to the present time, have been made by white men, and a man who tells his own story, is always...

Reader's Opinions

Well-written, but not in a novelistic or page-turner sense. The author seems to be writing mainly for persons who already know Sam Houston's life story in a broad sense and who simply want more detail. Thus, some of Houston's major life events are presented with neither buildup or...
