Peek Inside the Book

Sometimes, I like to pick the brightest star and wish upon it. Pop always said to wish on falling stars, but I've never seen any. Me, neither. He paused and finally let himself...

Brock sighed. Alright then, Spunky. I was thinking about life, I guess. Spunky grunted. In other words, you were thinking about a woman. I didn't say that No. Spunky grinned knowingly. But your face did. Willowy Whisper, The Letter //

Reader's Opinions

The Letter (Hills of Innocence Trilogy #2) is a 100,300 word novel. It is a Christian-fiction, romance, western, and murder mystery novel. Intended for ages 13 and up, but appropriate for any age, although there is some violence and kissing.

I don't like writing one star reviews, but I felt that I had to on this one. First off, I couldn't read the whole thing. I read the first 5 chapters, jumped ahead reading bits here and there, hoping to find something that would make me want to keep reading. I reached the climax and skimmed it as quickly as...
