

GEMINI MOON

Italian-born Lella York leads a very predictable life as an average housewife in Southern California... until a strange encounter on the Ponte Vecchio in Florence, Italy predicts a very different future. Upon returning from her vacation, Lella is shocked to find that her best friend, Ruby, has not only accidentally shot her own husband, but also mysteriously disappeared. To Lella's horror, her...

Peek Inside the Book

Why can't relationships come with an instruction manual for unsophisticated adults like me? Maria Grazia Swan, Gemini Moon //

I felt clueless and nervous--pretty much the same way I'd been feeling ever since I came back from Italy. Maria Grazia Swan, Gemini Moon //

Reader's Opinions

I love this author's mysteries, my favorites are the ones based in Italy (Read Italian Summer!). This one begins in Florence, close to the Ponte Vecchio and near the Uffizzi museum where the African vendors lay out their trinkets for tourists. Donatella, or Lella to her friends, is Italian born, and recently widowed, takes a brief vacation...

This is my first experience with Ms. Swan but I am absolutely in love with this book! I was captivated from page one and hated with "life" interfered with my reading! :) I was so caught up in the events evolving around Lella that I couldn't wait to see what would happen next!
