

BALANCING ACT

Thirteen-year-old Carli lives on her family's guest ranch in Colorado. She's a talented gymnast, but her parents are too busy running their business to give her much support. Carli develops a strong bond with her new coach, who believes that he can help her achieve her goal of Olympic glory. Carli dedicates herself to the vault, uneven bars, and balance beam, but just as she starts to...

Reader's Opinions

Mmm. Two and a half stars. This ends up being pretty generic middle-grade fluff. Carli's a middle-school gymnast with Olympic aspirations, but her dreams are threatened by her parents' lack of interest in sports and their desire to have Carli's help around the ranch closer to full-time. If this were YA, it would be a flat two stars; I'm...
